These events provide fantastic opportunities for artists, volunteers, and community members to connect, create, and celebrate art. Your participation is crucial to making these events a success.

Art in the Park - June 21st and 22nd: Vendors, Demonstrators, and Booth Volunteers Needed!

Art in the Park is a two-day outdoor festival held at the Square in Fairfield Glade and the Village Green Mall. We urgently need vendors to display and sell their artwork and crafts, as well as skilled demonstrators to engage the audience with live displays of artistic techniques. Whether it's painting, pottery, or woodworking, demonstrators add excitement and inspiration to the event.

In addition to vendors and demonstrators, we are seeking volunteers to staff the Plateau Creative Arts Center booth. Booth volunteers will play a vital role in welcoming visitors, sharing information about the center, and creating a friendly atmosphere. Your help ensures the festival runs smoothly and leaves a lasting impression on the community.

John Conrad Tours Visits Plateau Creative Arts Center

On April 22, the Plateau Creative Arts Center welcomed an enthusiastic and curious group of local residents as part of a John Conrad Tour. This marked the fourth time we've had the pleasure of hosting a tour, and with growing excitement, John Conrad has already requested two more tours for 2025.

Sally Neckvatal kicked things off with an engaging overview of the Art Guild's history, highlighting its early contributions to Fairfield Glade. She detailed the creation of our beautiful facility, the enduring importance of art throughout history, and the meaning of fine art as we define and celebrate it.

Following Sally's introduction, Dale Soblo shared insights into the center's diverse offerings, including classes, outreach programs, Art in the Park, Glitz and Glitter, and our valued partnership with the Cumberland Woodturners. To add some fun, Dale hosted an impromptu quiz to test the group's attentiveness. The participants aced it and were rewarded with art supplies generously provided by Jerry's Artarama.

Twyla Marti added her expertise, explaining the many uses of our gallery. She discussed the variety of shows we host, opportunities for artist challenges, First Friday events, and collaborative efforts with other galleries. Twyla also fielded questions about the artwork featured in the current judged and juried show, offering deeper insights into the pieces on display.

The tour concluded with attendees exploring two highlights of the center: Endless Possibilities and the serene Sculpture Garden. Some guests stayed afterward to ask additional questions, and we were thrilled by their enthusiasm. One visitor left with a membership application, which she submitted later that day, while another took home a brochure about the Woodturners.

Remember, you too can inspire others by sharing all the Plateau Creative Arts Center has to offer. Your support and passion are key to our success and the continued growth of our creative community.

Cumberland Woodturners Hosts Art Guild Members

The partnership between the Cumberland Woodturners Club and the Plateau Creative Arts Center is thriving. In April, Art Guild members toured the Club's impressive TCAT facility, where they explored woodturning techniques, safety, and tools, led by Tom Neckvatal. Live demonstrations sparked interest in combining art forms with turned wood, and three Club members have already joined the Guild, showcasing their work in the April 2025 show. More tours will be announced soon, or contact Tom Neckvatal at 612-719-7409 for a private visit.

I have no artistic talent!

"I have no artistic talent!" How often do we hear this? People say they don't know where to start, have no one to guide them, or create art no one ever sees. That's the perfect moment to introduce them to the Plateau Creative Arts Center and the Art Guild—where inspiration, learning, and community thrive. From Friday night gallery openings to classes, daytime gallery visits, and connecting on our website or Facebook page, there are endless opportunities to begin an art journey. Your personal invitation can make all the difference. Share with us who accepts your invite, and they might be featured in a future newsletter!

Plateau Creative Arts Center Presents: May's Featured Artists at "Gallery Opening Night"

By Amy Nichols

The Plateau Creative Arts Center is delighted to showcase two talented featured artists, Jeani Miller and Elaine Harkins, alongside the impressive works of graduating high school seniors.

Join us on Friday, May 2, from 5 - 7 PM for the Gallery Opening Night, an evening of art, conversation, and celebration. This free event invites art lovers and the community to mingle with local artists while enjoying light refreshments, including wine and non-alcoholic beverages.

Meet the Featured Artists

Elaine Harkins discovered her love for art as a child and later expanded her skills through various classes in architectural drawing, watercolor, and pastels. She began designing needlepoint canvases in the 1970s, focusing on historical themes such as Henry VIII and his wives. After taking a pastel techniques class at the Plateau Creative Arts Center in 2019—taught by none other than fellow featured artist Jeani Miller—Elaine immersed herself in pastels and watercolor.

Elaine finds inspiration in her travels, capturing scenes from Morocco, Patmos, Paris, Granada, and Kenya. Her works range from watercolors and pastels to intricate needlepoint pieces, offering viewers a journey through the world's vibrant cultures.

Jeani Miller has always been passionate about drawing. Using pastels, acrylics, and pencils, she specializes in portraiture, bringing life to both human and animal subjects. She notes the unique challenge of human portraits—depicting not only physical features but also how people perceive themselves. In contrast, she finds comfort in painting animals, as “the animal doesn’t judge.”

Jeani begins each portrait with the eyes, which she calls “the window to the soul”. Once the eyes are placed, the rest of the features come to life organically, as if the subject helps guide the process. For this exhibit, Jeani will present several large-scale pieces, including her 4’x5’ paintings Cosmos in Chaos and Over the Hill, as well as her striking 2’x8’ masterpiece, Hole in One, created in honor of her husband’s first hole-in-one at the Heatherhurst’s Crag golf course.

A Celebration of Creativity: Judged and Juried Open Show

The Plateau Creative Arts Center is proud to host its highly anticipated Judged and Juried Open Show, running from April 5th through May 1st. This exceptional exhibit showcases the extraordinary talent of local and regional artists, bringing together a diverse array of artwork to inspire and captivate visitors.

Guests were greeted by perfect spring weather, setting the stage for a delightful evening filled with creativity, camaraderie, and celebration. The Arts Center buzzed with energy as attendees mingled with artists and supporters, admiring the stunning gallery setup prepared by the dedicated Exhibits Team. The Hospitality Team ensured the evening was complete with an array of delicious refreshments and beverages.

Don’t miss this wonderful opportunity to experience stunning artwork, meet local artists, and celebrate creativity in the community. Gallery Opening Night is open to the public and free to attend.

If an artist would like help with their drawing, Dena or another artist is happy to provide assistance. "Life drawing sessions are very supportive and we learn from one another. It's a good time!"
